Ermionida

Explore the environs of Porto Heli and discover some of its charms and wonders on this half day tour. Visit the dolines or sinkholes of Didyma and admire the town's interesting geological situation as well as its two small Byzantine churches, built right under a cliff. Walk along an ancient path by the sea to the cave of Franchthi, a site that has been inhabited since the Upper Paleolithic Period (40,000 -10,000 BC). Drive through the Greek Riviera and admire its many beaches as well as the church of Saint Aimilianos or stop for coffee, lunch or dinner at the beautiful port of Ermioni.

Spetses

Luxury and local tradition coexist on the beautiful island of Spetses, a favorite of captains and fashionistas and only 15 min by boat from Nikki Beach Porto Heli. Cosmopolitan Spetses is an ideal destination for a quick retreat year round and never fails to make you feel special – whether you are enjoying a leisurely coffee in Dapia, with a view of Kosta and Porto Heli on the mainland opposite, taking a romantic stroll along the Old Harbor, or learning about the island's fearless heroine Laskarina Bouboulina. Horse-drawn carriages, bicycle and walking will be your only modes of transport on the island. Spetses has long been a favorite escape, as reflected in the smart cafes, art stores and stylish boutiques.

Hydra

Hydra is a cosmopolitan island close to Porto Heli (30 min by water taxi), once inhabited by revolutionaries and forever favored by jet-setters. This small, hilly island in the Saronic Gulf has over the years mesmerized its visitors with its quaintness, rich history and cultural allure. The moment you arrive on Hydra, you instantly feel the change of pace. The main port is cosmopolitan and elegant, with its 18th-century mansions, captains' houses, old churches, wells and marble-covered alleyways. Everywhere you look, water taxis buzz around the island like bees. The main town, Kaminia, Vlichos, Molos, Episkopi and Mandraki are just some of the highlights of an island which nurtured a revolution that won independence for an entire country.

Epidaurus

Discover ancient Epidaurus, the sanctuary of the ancient Greek god of medicine, Asclepius, and a UNESCO World Heritage Site on this half day tour. Learn about the ancient Greek healing cults and rites and explore the mysterious tholos as well as Epidaurus's temples, stadium, baths, banqueting hall and living quarters. Combine your visit with an experience of a lifetime, a live performance at the extraordinary ancient theater of Epidaurus and sit exactly where spectators sat over 2300 years ago!

Mycenae & Nafplion

Explore two of Greece's most fascinating places in a full day tour! Start your tour by visiting Mycenae, the capital of the kingdom of the legendary Agamemnon, the leader of the Greeks during the Trojan War – also a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Walk around its acropolis, passing through the famous Lions' Gate, and admire the vast Cyclopean walls, the ruins of the palace and the subterranean cistern. Next, visit the museum, gaining insight into how powerful and wealthy Mycenae was in antiquity and why it was described by Homer as being “rich in gold.” Before leaving the site, take the opportunity to enter into one of the nine vaulted tombs, where ancient kings were interred. Your journey will continue through Argos, a city in competition with Athens for the “title” of the oldest city in Europe, and pass by yet another impressive ancient site, Tiryns.

Visit Nafplion on this full day tour. The first capital of modern Greece, is often described as the nation's most beautiful city, offers a wide variety of things to do and see and is offered as a customizable, individual tour. Drive up to the Venetian fortress of Palamidi (or walk up its 999 steps!), take the boat to the fortress island of Bourtzi, and visit the Archaeological Museum or the Folklore Museum, or even the remarkable Kompoloi (rosary) Museum. But above all, make the time to walk through the picturesque streets of the old town, have a coffee at Syntagma Square, so reminiscent of an Italian piazza, and enjoy a snack, meal or drink by the seaside.

Ancient Corinth & Nemea

When departing from Porto Heli for this full day tour, your first stop will be at the 6,343-meter-long Corinth Canal connecting the Aegean with the Ionian Sea. Afterwards, take a walk around the ancient city of Corinth, one of the richest cities of ancient Greece and the capital of Roman Greece, and visit the monolithic temple of Apollo, Lechaion Road, the Roman Forum, and the Bema, where the famous trial of Saint Paul took place. Your The next stop should will be the site of ancient Nemea and its well-preserved stadium, where athletic games, only second in importance to the Olympic Games, were held every two years in honor of Zeus. Finally, you can visit a local vineyard and taste the world-famous wines of Nemea.

Ancient Olympia

Discover the most important and most sacred place of the ancient Greek world, where the complex and multi-dimensional phenomenon of the Olympic Games occurred on this full day tour. The Olympic Games, which spanned an impressive 1,169 years are an institution with the longest duration in the history of mankind. Olympia is where sport was linked to the noblest of humanistic principles – the Hellenic Ideals. The monuments of Olympia's sanctuary and museum await you to reveal their treasures in a landscape of unparalleled beauty.

Honey & Oil Museum

When visiting this farm, the guests can come close to nature via a farm full of beehives, olive, carob, pomegranate trees, and herbs. Uncover the bee's world and observe how bees work in the honey and bee museum via transparent beehives with plexiglass. Discover old types of beehives, old beekeeping tools, and how our ancestors used to extract honey 2,500 years ago. A specially designed outdoor space offers the visitors a relaxed way of enjoying the honey tasting and amazing views! Continue your visit to the olive oil museum, where you will find an old 1700-year-old olive oil mill! Learn the process of olive oil making as the museum simulates an old oil mill. Kranidi, since ancient times is known for its exceptional olive oil quality and production. The area has centuries-old olive trees, which is a reference to Pausanias.

Giagia's Family Farm

This little farmland, which has been passed from father to son over three generations, is an oasis of calmness, tranquility, and privacy. “Giagia’s” (grandma’s) old farm is taking you back in time with antique decór, welcoming hospitality and grandma’s delicacies. On the farmland, you will find goats, horses, calves, chickens, ducks, geese, peacocks, and last but not least, our turkeys. The heavenly garden offers vegetables, seeds and a variety of herbs. The cultivation of herbs and the utilization of essential oils will increase the curiosity of our visitors to learn more about plants and their healing qualities, educate themselves through workshops and experience the art of soap manufacturing.
